T

HE earth, O Lord, is fil-lèd with the fruit of thy works :

glad the heart of man, and oil to make him a cheerful countenance, and bread to strengthen man's heart.

The antiphon may be alternated with one or more verses and a Glory Be.

Ps. 104:1,2,23,24,30,33,34

raise the Lord O my soul; thou art become exceeding glorious: - thou art clothèd with majesty and honour.

2. Thou deckest thyself with light as it were with a garment : and spreadest out the heavens like a curtain.
23. Man goeth forth to his work, and to his labour : - | - | until the evening.
24. - | O Lord, how manifold are thy works ¹ : in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of thy riches.
30. When thou lettest thy breath go forth they shall be made : - | and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

1 O Lord, how manifold are thy works :

31. The glorious maj-esty of the Lord shall en-dure for ev-er : -

- the Lord shall re-joyce in his works.

33. I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live : - | I will praise my God while I have my being.

34. - | And so shall my words please him : - | - | my joy shall be in the Lord.

G Lo-ry be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Ghost;

as it was in the be-gin-ning, is now, and ev-er shall be, world without end. Amen.
